Reading Color Words

This lesson is designed to accompany a reading of the book "Snowmen at Night" by Caralyn Buehner. Connection: Snowmen wear lots of different colors of clothes when they go out at night. We are going to read sentences about our snowman's clothes, then color them correct color.

Objective: Read the sentences to know how to color the snowman

Materials Needed:

- Worksheet
- Crayons or markers

Instructions

- 1. Have the child read along with you (or by themselves if they can) each sentence.
- 2. Color each item as the sentences direct.

Name: _____
